

Asmara Dream

NOUVELLE ÉDITION
Marco Barbon

Asmara lives, so to speak, a triple dream. First the dream of Italian settlers who arrived here in the late nineteenth century with the intention to build in Africa a new Rome. Then the dream vis-à-vis independence from Ethiopia: a dream come true in 1992, after many years of courageous and lives of sacrifices clashes. Finally the dream of those who, faced with the difficulties of the present situation, seeking at all costs to leave the country, imagining a better future beyond its borders. These three dreams in intertwining, have woven and continue to weave the fate of this city, have fed and continue to feed the soul.
